

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 13, 2018

Brown County Dairy Promotion and Brown County UW-Extension are hosting Brown County's TASTE OF WISCONSIN EVENT

GREEN BAY, Wisconsin – February 13, 2018 –

The Taste of Wisconsin event which is a sample of commodities grown in our state will be Tuesday, February 27th at the Rock Garden in Green Bay, from 5:30pm to 8:00pm with Crystal Siemers-Peterman, the 70th Alice in Dairyland, and Randy Allen, radio legend, co-hosting the evening. The organizers from Brown County UW-Extension and Brown County Dairy Promotions are proud this function has reached its fifth year. There will be stations from area restaurants preparing a tasty dish or beverage using at least one Wisconsin commodity or dairy item.

Establishments bringing items are: 1951 West, the Cannery Public Market, Culver's custard, Great Harvest Bread Co., Los Banditos, Mona Rose Winery, The Pancake Place, Renard's Catering, Titledown Brewery, Uncle Mike's Bake Shoppe, and Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board sampling cheese.

Sponsors making this event educational and entertaining are: Belmark, Cornette Farm Supply & VitaPlus, VanderLoop Equipment, Country Aire Farms, Green Bay Insurance Center, and Brickstead Dairy. Watch the @BrownCountyDairyPromotions facebook page for additional announcements!

Proceeds from Taste of Wisconsin benefit Brown County UW Extension programming and Brown County Dairy Promotions community events. Cost per adult ticket is $15.00, children under age 5 are free.

For information visit www.BrownCountyDairyPromotions.com.

#

CONTACT:
Nicole Nohl
Brown County Dairy Promotions
Nicole.Nohl@gmail.com
920-980-4291